

INFORMATION CLAUSE from art. 13 GDPR for CLIENTS

The Controller of your personal data is Eidotech Polska Sp. z o.o. with the registered seat in Warsaw, ul. Kolejowa 15/7, entered into the Register of Entrepreneurs of the National Court Register, kept by the District Court for the Capital City of Warsaw in Warsaw, XII Commercial Division of the National Court Register, under the number 311923, NIP (Tax Identification No.) 899-264-92-67, REGON (Statistical Identification No.) 020784990, with the share capital amounting to PLN 50.000,00.

You have the right to access your data, to rectify and erase it, to limit processing of it, to object to data processing and to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority if you believe that processing of your personal data violates any legal provisions regarding the processing of personal data.

The data will be processed for the following purposes:

1. to conclude and perform contracts between you and the Controller and to make any required settlements - for a period necessary to perform a contract and, after its termination, for a period necessary to prove the right fulfilment of the obligations arising out of the contract (until the expiration of the limitation period indicated in the regulations about archiving documents),
2. to enable the Controller to fulfil its statutory obligations, including in particular tax, and reporting obligations - for the period necessary to fulfil the statutory obligations of the Controller especially until the expiration of the tax liabilities limitation period,
3. to fulfil the legitimate interests of the Controller described below - for the period necessary to fulfil the legitimate interests of the Controller but not longer than until your objection is considered to be justified by a particular situation. In the event that direct marketing is considered as a legitimate interest - until you withdraw your consent,
4. the data will be processed for a marketing purpose only with your informed and explicit consent. It includes especially providing you with information about the services offered by the Controller, promotions, price lists and other kinds of information and promotional events conveying via messages that use your e-mail address or telephone number as well as during telephone conversations - until you withdraw your consent to receive marketing statements.

The processing of your personal data will not lead to automated decision-making, including profiling. It will also not lead to produce any legal effects related to you or cause actions with similarly significant effects.

Providing your personal data is voluntary, but it is necessary to conclude a contract.

The legal basis of personal data processing in order to conclude and perform contracts is Article (6) (1) (b) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (hereinafter: the GDPR) and Article (6) (1) (c) of the GDPR to the extent necessary to enable the Controller to fulfil its statutory obligations.

The personal data is also processed on the basis of Article (6) (1) (f) of the GDPR when legitimate interest of the Controller consists the need to safeguard all necessary accountant documents related to the agreement, settling claims, direct marketing, as well as public relations and building of a public image.

In the event that you agree to receive marketing information directly via email and/ or telephone, the legal basis is art. 10 of the Act on Providing Services by Electronic Means of 18 July 2002 and art. 172 of the Telecommunications Act of 16 July 2004.

In the event that your personal data is processed on the basis of a separate consent, you can withdraw your consent at any time. The withdrawal of consent does not affect the legality of the processing, which was carried out on the basis of the consent expressed by you prior to its withdrawal.

The recipients of your personal data may include: the entities the Controller is obliged to provide data on the grounds of applicable law, the counterparties and customers of the Controller, and the entities that process personal data on behalf of the Controller, i.e. entrepreneurs that provide the following services to the Controller:

1. legal and debt collection services;
2. advisory and audit services;
3. IT and hosting services;
4. accounting, financial and HR services;
5. parcel delivery services;
6. payment processing services;
7. marketing services.

Your personal data will be transferred to countries located outside the European Economic Area, i.e. the USA - on the basis of the decision of the European Commission of 12 July 2016 introducing the Privacy Shield, and to other countries in which Google data centres are located or in which data are processed by the subprocessors of Google - on the basis of the standard contractual clauses that oblige a processor to ensure the appropriate protection of personal data. More information about data transfer safeguards may be found on Google website in the tabs concerning privacy and the terms and conditions of G-Suite services.

There are two kinds of the right to object to the processing of your personal data; if the Controller processes your personal data:

1. on the basis of legitimate interests - you may object for reasons related to your particular situation;
2. for the purpose of offering marketing services - you may object in each case.
